Annual Card Party Feb. 22 Tops CDA Future Projects

A Valentine party, at which secret pals revealed their names, was a combined business and social meeting for Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, Monday evening at Nativity parish hall. Business included change of meeting night, election of a new organist, and plans for the annual card party, postponed from January and now scheduled for Monday evening, Feb. 22.

Mrs. Charles Butterfield was elected organist to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Mrs. John V. Murray. Mrs. Butterfield will be the court's second organist. Mrs. Murray having been elected as charter organist, a post she filled continuously since Court St. Catherine was instituted in 1945.

The first and third Thursdays of each month, for business and socials, respectively, will be the new meeting time for the group, effective March 1. Other business included sponsoring of the annual CDA poetry contest at Nativity school, and voting of a donation for March of Dimes. Mmes. Don Cowden, F. W. Rick and Gordon Hicks aided her in staging the party at Harbor General Hospital. Mrs. Louis Derouin, social welfare chairman, reported.

An attractive Valentine arrangement by the evening's chairman, Mrs. Don Cowden, centered the refreshment table. Assisting her were Mesdames Ray Montenegro, Crencio Mata and Forest G. Meyers. Secret pals names were drawn for another year, under chairmanship of Mrs. Gordon Hicks. Mrs. George Klinek was secret pal chairman during the year just past.

The annual card party, one of Court St. Catherine's major ways and means projects, this year will benefit the CDA World Mission program. Meeting in the members' homes to see several evenings a month, this group is now making leaflets for home missions, under the guidance of Miss Catherine Shaughnessy.

Card play will begin at 8 p.m. on Feb. 22, Nativity parish hall on Cota, with choice of bridge, canasta and other usual games, according to the chairmen, Mmes. F. W. Rick and Michael McMahon. Members who will assist in awarding door prizes and seeing that things run smoothly include Mmes. William Hartley, Lena Osweiler, Thomas Cassidy, Frank Corsentine, Lyle Freckleton, Lloyd Landerville, William Healy, Ralph Sullivan, Joseph Comore, Raymond Rogers, Edward Heatherman, Ralph Bobbitt, Miles O'Dowd, George L. Probert, Marie Liniger, and Catherine Fahey, and the Misses Rosa and Katherine Ortman.

Several new members will be received into the local court in Long Beach on Feb. 24, when Court Marian holds initiation ceremonies.

Blue Birds Entertain At Rest Home

The "Bluejay" Blue Birds of Waleria entertained at the Margie Correll Rest Home at 2834 Pacific Coast Hwy. on Valentine's Day, Sunday, Feb. 14.

The girls each made fancy lace Valentines and presented them to the shut-ins. They sang their Blue Bird songs and chatted with the oldsters, bringing happiness and thoughts of remembrance on this romantic holiday. Gaily decorated nut cups, filled with Valentine candies were presented to the home for their dinner table as a gift from the Waleria Business Women's Club, sponsors of this Blue Bird Group.

The girls participating were: Julie Anderson, Cathy Beck, Marcia Bigelow, Joan DeMott, Nadra Holmes, Deedie Klempan, Lynn Sharp, Melanie Smith and Dayna Vladimir.

Square Dance Class Begins

A square dance beginners class will open on Saturday evening for adults and children, eight years and over. A class for newcomers is also slated for Saturday evening.

A class from 5 to 7 p.m. will be held for the children and adults will dance from 8 until 11 p.m. Place of the class is 1932 Pacific Coast Highway, Lomita.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Cheek are instructors. They may be contacted for further information.
